NEW STADIUM PLANS

THE GOAL: To design and develop a state of the art baseball stadium that is unique and would be representative of New York City—"The greatest city in the world".

TARGET DATE FOR COMPLETION OF STADIUM: 2004

LOCATION: Corner of Roosevelt Avenue and 126th Street, within existing Shea Stadium parking lot.

CAPACITY: 45,000 seats for baseball; up to 50,000 for other events.

STADIUM: The facility will have a facade and rotunda that evokes memories of Ebbets Field but also will have every modern feature, including a retractable roof, 78 luxury suites, four party suites and more than 5,000 club suites. The most unique element of the design is a roll-out natural grass field. The entire playing field will roll out of the stadium in one piece and come to rest in the parking lot surrounded by a fence and open to the air and sunlight. This is an essential element to play in an enclosed facility on natural grass. When the field is rolled out, the concrete deck would be used for any number of sports and entertainment events year-round. The Mets have exclusive rights to roll-in, roll-out technology in this part of the country.

SHEA STADIUM'S LONGEST HOME RUNS

It is generally perceived that Tommie Agee hit the longest home run in the history of Shea Stadium on April 10, 1969. In the second inning, Agee hit a drive into the upper deck in leftfield off the Expos' Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 33-year history to reach the upper deck.

Dave Kingman had several monumental blasts at Shea, including one that cleared the back fence in leftfield (which is 488' feet away from home) and reached the parking lot.

On September 4, 1998, Mike Piazza hit a 485 foot two run blast off Atlanta's Tom Glavine to give the Mets a 2-1 victory.

Darryl Strawberry pelted the rightfield scoreboard many times, including a moon shot off the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela on May 22, 1987. Straw also hit monster shot's off the Reds' Jack Armstrong, July 7, 1988 and off the Astros' Dave Smith, July 19, 1986.

Other big blasts of note are: Leon Durham breaking a window in the player's parking lot off Mark Bomback in 1980 and Bobby Bonilla hitting a bus off Jeff Innis on Opening Day, 1990. Richie Allen also cracked a couple of extremely long home runs at Shea.

THE METS LOGO

The circular Mets logo, designed by sports cartoonist Ray Gatto and unveiled on November 16, 1961, has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, but has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

AND THE NAME IS...

"The name is METS...just plain Mets."

The name Mets was judged by club owner Mrs. Joan Payson as the one that best met five basic criteria:

1) It met public and press acceptance;
2) It was closely related to the team's corporate name (Metropolitan Baseball Club, Inc);
3) It was descriptive of the Metropolitan area;
4) It had a brevity that delighted copy readers everywhere;
5) It had historical background, referring to the Metropolitans of the 19th century American Association.

Other names considered included Rebels, Skyliners, NYBs, Burros (for the five boroughs), Continentals, Avengers...As well as Jets and Islanders, names that would eventually find their way into the New York sports scene.

CASEY'S LAST GAME

On Saturday afternoon, July 24, 1965, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Mets at Shea, 5-1...The game would be the last in the distinguished career of manager Casey Stengel...Stengel was forced into retirement by a broken hip he would suffer later that night...Here are some details of the game:

Jim Bunning struck out 12, in tossing a two-hitter for the Phillies...Johnny Lewis had both Met hits including a solo home run in the fourth that provided New York's only run...Wes Covington went 3-3, with a double, a home run, and three RBI to lead the Phils...Richie Allen added three hits for Philadelphia and Dick Stuart cracked a home run.

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30th, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea. Only three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson in 1962, Willard Hunter in 1964 and Jesse Orosco in 1983—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12, 1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds 3-2 and 8-7 with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of no-hit shutout relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins; 7-6 and 1-0.

SELF SUPPORT
In the entire 38-year history of the club, only twice has a Mets pitcher belted a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first homer ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded homer at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

THE BIG COMEBACK

Come-from-behind victories have always been a big part of Mets history. Possibly the most dramatic in club history came on September 13, 1997, when New York overcame a 6-0 ninth-inning defecit to overtake the Expos, 9-6, in 11 innings. In that contest, Carl Everett's grand slam with two out in the ninth inning tied the game and Bernard Gilkey's pinch-hit three-run home run in the 11th was the game-winner.

However, the biggest comeback triumph in club annals came on September 2, 1972 when the Mets trailed the Houston Astros, 8-0, after seven innings. Sparked by Ken Boswell's three-run home run, the Mets sent 12 batters to the plate in the eighth, exploding for seven runs and cutting the deficit to 8-7. In the ninth, New York would bat around again, scoring four runs. Cleon Jones' two-run double was the deciding blow as the Mets posted the greatest come-from-behind win in club history ion an 11-8 victory.

1-0 GAMES

The Mets have an all-time record of 93-89 in games that have ended with 1-0 scores…The most 1-0 wins the Mets have had in any season were in 1969, when the club went 9-5…On September 29, 1993 the Mets and Cardinals battled for 16 scoreless innings before Jeff Kent's 17th-inning double plated the game's only run…A long evening, but not a club record…That honor belongs to the 1-0 Mets loss on April 15, 1968 when the Mets and Astros went 23 scoreless innings before Houston pushed across the winning run on an infield error.

The Mets were 0-1 in 1-0 games in 1999:

THE BIG INNING

The biggest inning in Mets history? It's the 10-run bombardment that they unleashed against the Cincinnati Reds in the sixth inning at Shea on June 12, 1979. It was the keynote in a 12-6 victory.

The inning featured five hits and two Reds' errors as the Mets victimized three Cincinnati pitchers (Bill Bonham, Manny Sarmiento and Dave Tomlin) during the record assault.

Key hits during the inning were Frank Taveras' two-run double, Richie Hebner's two-run single and Doug Flynn's three-run, inside-the-park home run. The Mets went into the inning trailing, 5-2 and came out with a 12-5 lead.

RETIRED NUMBERS

On April 15, 1997 in a special ceremony at Shea Stadium, the chairman of the Major League Executive Council, Allan H. "Bud" Selig announced the retirement of the Jackie Robinson's uniform Number 42 throughout major league baseball.

"The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig standing side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and the President of the United States, Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring Number 42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

According to a news release sent out by the Office of the Commissioner that night: 'Number 42 will never again be issued by a major league club to any player or other on-field personnel, other than those who are currently wearing it. Those who are may wear them for the remainder of their careers.'

Butch Huskey, who wore 42 as a tribute to Robinson, was be the last Met to wear the number.

Tom Seaver is the only Met player to have his number retired. Number 41 was retired in a tribute at Shea Stadium on July 24, 1988.

Gil Hodges' number 14 and Casey Stengel's 37 are also retired.
